

Liferaft Service

Every inflatable liferaft should be serviced at intervals of 12 months at an approved service station that is competent to service them, maintains proper servicing facilities, and uses only properly trained and certified personnel.